

The Substance Abuse Prevention Specialist Training (SAPST) Schedule for July 2011-June 2012

DATES	LOCATION
July 25-28, 2011	Gunnison
September 26-29, 2011	Steamboat Springs
October 10-13, 2011	Denver
March 2012	Pueblo
April 17-20, 2012	Colorado Springs
May 2012	Limon

SAPST registration is on COTRAIN. This is a learning resource for professionals in public health from the Department of Public Health and Environment. Through this site, you can quickly find and register for many courses listed on co.train.org and participating TRAIN affiliate sites. SAPST course number is: 1008481. Please visit <https://www.co.train.org> for registration.

Once you log on to the site, please sign up for a user name and search by course number to find this training. After registering in COTRAIN, You must then send a check to OMNI to complete your registration process.

DEADLINE for registration for All SAPST courses is Two Weeks prior to class start date.

Course Content

- Training in sound theoretical approaches
- Training in science based prevention
- Resources for prevention professionals and networking
- Consistent prevention strategies
- Systematically planning and assessing programs
- Promoting and marketing prevention to communities
- Assessing community readiness
- Utilizing multiple long-term strategies proven effective in diverse populations
- Developmental Strategies

DBH's SAPST is facilitated by the Regional Prevention Service Project of OMNI and funded by the Colorado Department of Humans Services, Division of Behavioral Health. OMNI reserves the right to cancel any course if the minimum number of registrants is not met. The registration fee for SAPST is $75 and must be made by check sent to OMNI. If you cancel participation less than 24 hours before your course starts, you forfeit your registration fee

